

Merry Christmas to our Family and Friends,

2014 was a year full of many blessings for our family. We had numerous opportunities to travel around the country and were even able to meet up with Tyler, Ashli, and Anah at a wedding in Iowa in late May. We certainly enjoy these precious few moments we get to spend with them. In fact, we are preparing to drive to NM in late December to celebrate Christmas with them. The pictures in this letter capture many of the fun memories that were created this year. Among those not pictured were a 50th surprise birthday party that Kris somehow pulled off for Steve without him knowing about it. God sure has been good to us and we can't wait to see what He has in store for 2015!
